OFFICERS OF THE ARMY DETAILED AS PROFESSORS OF MILITARY SCIENCE AND TACTICS AT EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

OFFICERS DETAILED UNDER SECTION 1225, REVISED STATUTES, AS AMENDED BY THE ACTS OF CONGRESS APPROVED SEPTEMBER 26, 1888, JANUARY 13, 1891, AND NOVEMBER 3, 1893.

NOTE.—Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 70, War Department, November 18, 1913, these institutions are divided into four classes, as follows:

CLASS M C.—Colleges and universities (including land-grant institutions) where the curriculum is sufficiently advanced to carry with it a degree, where the students are habitually in uniform, where the average age of the students on graduation is not less than 21 years, where military discipline is constantly maintained, and where one of the leading objects is the development of the student by means of military drill and by regulating his daily conduct according to the principles of military discipline.

CLASS M.—Essentially military institutions where the curriculum is not sufficiently advanced to carry with it a degree or where the average age of the students on graduation is less than 21 years.

CLASS C.—Colleges and universities (including land-grant institutions) not essentially military where the curriculum is sufficiently advanced to carry with it a degree and where the average age of the students on graduation is not less than 21 years.

CLASS S M.—Institutions not included in any of the classes mentioned above.

Institutions whose students have exhibited the greatest application and proficiency in military training and knowledge during the year are designated annually as "distinguished colleges and honor schools." An asterisk against the name of an institution indicates that it is one of those that have been so designated, the year or years in which it was designated being placed after the name of the institution. A dagger against the name of an institution indicates that it has been especially commended for the work of its military department during the year indicated in parentheses after the name of the institution.

OFFICERS OF THE ARMY DETAILED AS PROFESSORS OF MILITARY SCIENCE AND TACTICS AT EDUCATIONAL INSTITUTIONS.

OFFICERS DETAILED UNDER SECTION 1225, REVISED STATUTES, AS AMENDED BY THE ACTS OF CONGRESS APPROVED SEPTEMBER 26, 1888, JANUARY 13, 1891, AND NOVEMBER 3, 1893.

NOTE.—Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 70, War Department, November 18, 1913, these institutions are divided into four classes, as follows:

CLASS M C.—Colleges and universities (including land-grant institutions) where the curriculum is sufficiently advanced to carry with it a degree, where the students are habitually in uniform, where the average age of the students on graduation is not less than 21 years, where military discipline is constantly maintained, and where one of the leading objects is the development of the student by means of military drill and by regulating his daily conduct according to the principles of military discipline.

CLASS M.—Essentially military institutions where the curriculum is not sufficiently advanced to carry with it a degree or where the average age of the students on graduation is less than 21 years.

CLASS C.—Colleges and universities (including land-grant institutions) not essentially military where the curriculum is sufficiently advanced to carry with it a degree and where the average age of the students on graduation is not less than 21 years.

CLASS S M.—Institutions not included in any of the classes mentioned above.

Institutions whose students have exhibited the greatest application and proficiency in military training and knowledge during the year are designated annually as "distinguished colleges and honor schools." An asterisk against the name of an institution indicates that it is one of those that have been so designated, the year or years in which it was designated being placed after the name of the institution. A dagger against the name of an institution indicates that it has been especially commended for the work of its military department during the year indicated in parentheses after the name of the institution.

NOTE.—Under the provisions of General Orders, No. 70, War Department, November 18, 1913, these institutions are divided into four classes, as follows:

CLASS M C.—Colleges and universities (including land-grant institutions) where the curriculum is sufficiently advanced to carry with it a degree, where the students are habitually in uniform, where the average age of the students on graduation is not less than 21 years, where military discipline is constantly maintained, and where one of the leading objects is the development of the student by means of military drill and by regulating his daily conduct according to the principles of military discipline.

CLASS M.—Essentially military institutions where the curriculum is not sufficiently advanced to carry with it a degree or where the average age of the students on graduation is less than 21 years.

CLASS C.—Colleges and universities (including land-grant institutions) not essentially military where the curriculum is sufficiently advanced to carry with it a degree and where the average age of the students on graduation is not less than 21 years.

Institutions whose students have exhibited the greatest application and proficiency in military training and knowledge during the year are designated annually as "distinguished colleges and honor schools." An asterisk against the name of an institution indicates that it is one of those that have been so designated, the year or years in which it was designated being placed after the name of the institution. A dagger against the name of an institution indicates that it has been especially commended for the work of its military department during the year indicated in parentheses after the name of the institution.
